

Front of House – Server – Stockyards Brewery & Restaurant

We are looking for hospitality-driven servers who thrive in a full-service restaurant environment where community, quality, craft beer, and guest experience come first. Our Front of House team is the heartbeat of the room — guiding guests through our menu, sharing knowledge of our food and beer offerings, and creating memorable dining experiences from first pour to final cheers.

In this role, servers are responsible for delivering attentive, knowledgeable service while maintaining a smooth and welcoming dining room atmosphere. The ideal candidate is adaptable, service-focused, and confident managing a busy section while providing warm, genuine hospitality.

While the primary focus of this position is serving, team members are also cross-trained to support hosting, bar service, and overall dining room flow when needed. We're looking for someone who brings energy to the floor, communicates well with the team, and takes pride in creating great guest experiences in a fast-paced restaurant setting.

What You'll Do

- Welcome and seat guests with warmth, confidence, and genuine hospitality
- Guide guests through our beer, beverage, and food menus with knowledgeable recommendations
- Provide attentive, detail-oriented table service throughout the dining experience
- Ensure timing and communication between front and back of house to maintain smooth service flow
- Maintain bar, dining room, and service areas to the highest cleanliness standards
- Bus and reset tables quickly to support smooth service flow
- Anticipate guest needs and resolve concerns with professionalism and urgency
- Uphold high standards of food presentation, beverage quality and guest satisfaction
- Contribute to a collaborative, team-first culture on every shift
- Ensure compliance with all regulations with respect to AGCO, Department of Public Health and Health & Safety Committee
- Other duties as required

Who You Are

- Passionate about hospitality, craft beer, and community
- Energetic, reliable, and comfortable multitasking under pressure
- Strong communicator with a natural ability to connect with guests
- Experienced or eager to learn in a high-volume, full-service restaurant

- Team-oriented with a “no task too small” mindset
- Detail-oriented with a strong sense of urgency
- Flexible and available for evenings, weekends, and holidays
